

Our Today's Lesson is-

A dialogue on “Importance of learning English”

Learning outcomes

After we have studied this lesson we will be able to–

- be curious to learn English
- eager to speak English
- practice English
- write a dialogue in English.

A photograph of two young women in black uniforms shaking hands. The woman on the left has glasses and a braid. The woman on the right has her hair in a ponytail. Both are smiling. There are two speech bubbles overlaid on the image. The first speech bubble, pointing to the woman on the left, contains the text 'Hi friend, How are you?'. The second speech bubble, pointing to the woman on the right, contains the text 'I am fine and you?'.

Hi friend, How are you?

I am fine and you?

A photograph of two women in black uniforms sitting in black chairs with chrome frames, facing each other in conversation. The woman on the left is wearing a black jacket with a red circular patch on the sleeve and black pants. The woman on the right is also in a black uniform. They are in a room with a white wall and a light-colored tiled floor. Two speech bubbles are overlaid on the image, containing English text.

I am also fine. What were you doing?

I was reading an English newspaper.

A photograph of two women in black uniforms sitting in black chairs with chrome frames, facing each other in conversation. The woman on the left is wearing glasses and has a red circular patch on her sleeve. The woman on the right has her hands clasped. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

But why English
Newspaper?

English is very important.

A photograph of two women sitting in black office chairs, facing each other in conversation. They are both wearing black uniforms. The woman on the left has a red circular patch on her sleeve. The background is a plain, light-colored wall. Two speech bubbles are overlaid on the image, containing text.

What do you mean?

It is an international language.

Yes. I know.

Do you know the importance of English?

I know a little bit.
Do you explain more ?

Sure!
The world cannot go for a single day without English.

A photograph of two young women sitting in black office chairs, facing each other in conversation. They are both wearing black uniforms. The woman on the left has long dark hair and glasses. The woman on the right is gesturing with her right hand. Two speech bubbles are overlaid on the image. The first bubble, at the top, points to the woman on the left and contains the text "O, I see.". The second bubble, at the bottom, points to the woman on the right and contains the text "Exactly. Most of the people of the world speak in English.".

O, I see.

Exactly. Most of the people of the world speak in English.

Only speak ?

No, Most of the books and documents are also written in English.

A photograph of two young women in black uniforms sitting on chairs and facing each other in conversation. The woman on the left is wearing glasses and has her hair tied back. The woman on the right is gesturing with her hand while speaking. Two speech bubbles are overlaid on the image: one at the top center and one in the lower center. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

What should we do?

We should learn English.
Moreover, it is the language of ICT .

How is it related to ICT?

All ICT activities are conducted in English.

A photograph of two women in black uniforms sitting in black chairs, facing each other in conversation. The woman on the left is wearing glasses and has a red circular patch on her sleeve. The woman on the right has her hands clasped. The background is a plain wall with a window on the right. Two speech bubbles are overlaid on the image.

Anything more?

If you want to keep pace with the world, there is no other alternative to learning English.

A photograph of two women in black uniforms sitting in black chairs with chrome frames, facing each other in conversation. The woman on the left is wearing glasses and has her hands in her lap. The woman on the right is gesturing with her hands while speaking. Two speech bubbles are overlaid on the image, containing the text 'Yes, You have told the right.' and 'Thank you.'.

Yes, You have told the right.

Thank you.

You are most welcome.

Pair Work

Every single pair is told to write a dialogue on,

“The Importance of Learning English.”

Evaluation

Answer the following questions-

What language is called the International language?

Why is it called the International language?

Why should we learn English?

How is English related to ICT?

What should we do to develop our English skills?

Advice

“Learn English,
Be smart”