

A vibrant tropical beach scene. The foreground is dominated by a wide, golden-sand beach. To the left, gentle waves with white foam wash onto the shore. The ocean extends to a clear blue horizon. On the right, a dense line of lush green palm trees stands tall, with several trunks leaning over the beach. Long, dark shadows of the palm trees are cast across the sand. The sky is a deep, clear blue with a few wispy clouds near the horizon. The overall atmosphere is bright and serene.
